Villa Azur Miami

Villa Azur Miami

Jean-Philippe Bernard, Michael Martin and French actor Olivier Martinez have come together to create Villa Azur, a restaurant showcasing cuisine from the South of France and Italy in South Beach in an exceptional decor.

More information...

Jean-Philippe Bernard, Michael Martin and French actor Olivier Martinez joined forces to create a restaurant showcasing cuisine from Southern France and Italy. Together, they were able to bring a real touch of freshness and authenticity with the Villa Azur, in South Beach.

The single framework was designed to remind customers of the beautiful Villas in the French Riviera, by incorporating the charm and energy of Miami. Romantic decor – designed by François Frossard, stages an interesting contrast of vintage, antique and modern wood chandeliers mixed with contemporary furnishings. The green interior patio adds the magic necessary to make you forget the city in which you are located.

In the kitchen, the Chef Romain Bester, brings the flavors of the South of France working with vegetables of the season and gourmet products imported from France.

Guests can savor dishes such as Rigatoni with morel mushroom sauce, Penne Rigate, the Veal filet mignon stuffed with artichokes, fresh grilled Branzino, and desserts such as the homemade Nutella Mousse, Chocolate Profiteroles, Lemon Meringue Pie or even Tarte Tatin to name a few. For those who prefer light dinner, Villa Azur also offers plates of seafood, fish Ceviche and crunchy vegetable salad. Villa Azur combines quality service and a warm atmosphere with the energy and the excitement of this cosmopolitan city.
