

GOTHAM

2010

Designed in Mind

Nightclub impresario Mark Baker takes us on an all-access “behind the velvet rope” tour of his late-night hot spot, the ultra-lounge known as Mansion.

WHAT DO YOU GET WHEN the king of the Miami club scene, Eric Milon, joins forces with the godfather of New York City nightlife, Mark Baker? Roughly 23,320 square feet of pure hedonistic heaven, aka Mansion.

Formerly the site of Crobar, Mansion was designed by François Frossard, who was enlisted by Baker and Milon to create a totally unique atmosphere comprised of five themed areas and the best sound system in the city. “Our job,” Baker says, “was to create a luxurious space that was still fun and allowed us to have shows and performances and really get back to the very basics of what New York nightlife is all about.”